Sub:-Adjudication of Show Cause Notice No. 653/2018-19/DMC/JNCH dated 21.06.2018 issued to M/s. Salvi Chemical Industries Ltd (IEC No. 0388171049).

BRIEF FACT OF THE CASE

1. M/s Salvi Chemical Industries Ltd (IEC No. 0388171049) declared IEC address as 214, Blue Rose Industrial Estate, Western Express Highway, Borivali (E), Mumbai(MH) -400092 (hereinafter referred to as "the importer") have obtained exemption from payment of Customs Duty in respect of clearance of imported goods in terms of Notification No.96 /2009-Cus dated 11.09.2009 under Advance Authorisation No. 0310732094 dated 22.04.2013 (herein after referred to as "License") for duty saved amount of Rs. 29,13,688/-.(Rupees Twenty Nine Lakh Thirteen Thousand Six Hundred Eighty Eight Only).

2. The importer M/s Salvi Chemical Industries Ltd (IEC No. 0388171049), had cleared imported goods of assessable value of Rs. 1,27,49,636/-(Rupees One Crore Twenty Seven Lakhs Forty Nine Thousand Six Hundred Thirty Six only) under Advance Authorisation No. 0310732094 dated 22.04.2013 in terms of Customs Notification No. 96 /2009-Cus dated 11.09.2009 at concessional rate of duty. The importer has executed Bond dated 06.06.2013 which was accepted by the Assistant Commissioner of Customs and they had also given an undertaking to fulfil the conditions of the Bond, Advance Authorisation and the relevant, Custom Notification at the time of registration of the license at Nhava Sheva port.

3. Further, as per the conditions of the said Customs Notification No. 96 /2009-Cus dated 11.09.2009, License Condition and undertaking given in the Bond, the importer was required to produce proof of fulfilment of export obligation within the period as prescribed in the said notification.

4. Further, as per the provision of Section 143 of the Customs Act, 1962, the said imported goods were allowed clearance by the proper officer on execution of bond by the importer wherein the importer bounded themselves to discharge liability in certain manner, which they have failed to do so by not submitting Export Obligation Discharge Certificate (EODC). Further, a letter F.No. S/26-Misc-382/2017-18 DMC dated 23.02.2018 was issued to the said Importer to submit evidence in support of Fulfillment of export obligation of the said license of which the Importer did not respond even after 30 days from the date of receipt of the said letter dated 23.02.2018. Thus the importer appeared to have not complied with the mandatory conditions of Customs Notification No. 96 /2009-Cus dated 11.09.2009, License Condition and undertaking given in the Bond.

5. In view of above, a show cause notice No. 653/2018-19/DMC/JNCH dated 21.06.2018 was issued to the Importer wherein it has been alleged that the importer M/s Salvi Chemical Industries Ltd (IEC No. 0388171049) is liable to pay customs duty amounting to Rs. 29,13,688/- (Rupees Twenty Nine Lakh Thirteen Thousand Six Hundred Eighty Eight Only) in respect of the said imported goods along with interest at the applicable rate in terms of the said notification read with conditions stipulated in the said Notification read with the conditions of the Bond executed by the Importer and the conditions of the said License. It is also alleged that the imported goods were not used for intended purpose for which the exemption from duty was claimed, therefore, the same are liable for confiscation under Section 111(o) of the Customs Act, 1962. It is also proposed that the importer is liable for penalty under section 112(a) of the Customs Act, 1962 for their act of commission or omission which render the goods liable for confiscation.

6. Therefore the Importer M/s Salvi Chemical Industries Ltd (IEC No. 0388171049) were called upon to show cause to the Additional Commissioner of Customs, Nhava Sheva-II, having his office at Jawaharlal Nehru Customs House, Nhava Sheva, Tal. Uran, Dist. Raigad, Maharashtra- 400707 as to why:-

(i) The imported goods of declared Assessable Value of Rs. 1,27,49,636/- (Rupees One Crore Twenty Seven Lakhs Forty Nine Thousand Six Hundred Thirty Six only), should not be held liable for confiscation under section 111 (o) of the Customs Act, 1962 read with conditions of Bond executed in terms of Section 143 of the Customs Act, 1962 read with Custom Notification 96/2009-Cus dated 11.09.2009 as amended/applicable.

(ii) Duty forgone amount of Rs. 29,13,688/- (Rupees Twenty Nine Lakh Thirteen Thousand Six Hundred Eighty Eight Only) along with applicable interest (from the date of clearance of goods to the date of payment of duty) should not be recovered in terms of conditions of Bond executed under section 143 of the Customs Act 1962 read with Customs Notification No. 96/2009-Cus dated 11.09.2009 read with condition of Advance Authorization.

(iii) Penalty should not be imposed on the importer under section 112(a) of the Customs Act 1962 for the acts of omission and commission.

(iv) Bond furnished by the importer should not be enforced for recovery of duty, interest, penalty and redemption fine, if any.

7. The Importer was required to produce all evidences upon which they intend to rely in support of their defense and indicate in their written reply as to whether they intend to be heard in person before the case is adjudicated, failing which it will be presumed that they do not desire a personal hearing.

8. The importer was also informed that if no reply is received within 30 (Thirty) days of receipt of this notice and do not appear before the adjudicating authority when the case is posted for hearing, the case will be decided ex-parte on the basis of material available on record.

RECORD OF PERSONAL HEARING

9. In line with the principle of natural justice, letter was issued to the Importer with a request to appear before Adjudicating Authority for personal hearing on 08.04.2025 and 03.10.2025. Shri Kaushal Salvi, Director, attended personal hearing on 09.10.2025 on virtual mode. They stated that they have already completed the EODC under advance Authorisation No. 0310732094 dated 22.04.2013. They have submitted the photocopy of Redemption letter dated 12.03.2019 through email and stated that they will present the original copy on 13.10.2025 for verification purpose and requested to close the issue under SCN.

DISCUSSIONS AND FINDINGS

10. I have carefully gone through the facts of the case, available records and written submission from the Importer. I find that in compliance to the provisions of section 28(8) and 122(A) of the Customs Act, 1962 and in terms of principles of natural justice, opportunity for personal hearing was given to the Importer on 08.04.2025 and 03.10.2025. the Director of the said Importer attended the Personal Hearing on 09.10.2025 on virtual mode. Hence the principles of natural justice have been followed during the adjudication proceeding. Accordingly, I proceed to decide the case.

11. I find that the importer M/s Salvi Chemical Industries Ltd (IEC No. 0388171049) have obtained exemption from payment of Duty against clearance of imported goods in terms of Customs Notification No. 96/2009-Cus dated 11.09.2009 against Advance Authorisation No. 0310732094 dated 22.04.2013 for duty saved amount of Rs. 29,13,688/-. (Rupees Twenty Nine Lakh Thirteen Thousand Six Hundred Eighty Eight Only). It is alleged in the Show Cause Notice that the Importer could not produce EODC certificate within the period as prescribed, hence the importer is liable to pay Duty saved amount along with applicable interest. It also alleged in SCN that the imported goods were not used for intended purpose for which the exemption from payment of duty was claimed, therefore, aforesaid goods are liable for confiscation under section 111 (o) of the Customs Act, 1962 read with conditions of Bond executed in terms of Section 143 of the Customs Act, 1962 read with Customs Notification 96/2009-Cus dated 11.09.2009 (and /or relevant Customs Notification issued/amended and applicable from time to time). It therefore appeared that Importer for the acts of omissions and commissions mentioned above has rendered themselves liable for penal action under Section 112 (a) of the Customs Act, 1962.

12. In view of the above, I find that the issues to be decided are:

- (i) Whether the imported goods of declared Assessable Value of Rs. 1,27,49,636/-(Rupees One Crore Twenty Seven Lakhs Forty Nine Thousand Six Hundred Thirty Six only) should be held liable for confiscation under Section 111(o) of the Customs Act, 1962 read with relevant Notifications as amended.
- (ii) whether the duty saved amount of Rs. 29,13,688/-(Rupees Twenty Nine Lakh Thirteen Thousand Six Hundred Eighty Eight Only) along with applicable interest should be recovered in terms of conditions of Bond executed under section 143 of the Customs Act 1962 read with Customs Notification No. 96/2009-Cus dated 11.09.2009.
- (iii) Whether penalty should be imposed on the importer under Section 112(a) of the Customs Act, 1962.
- (iv) Whether Bond furnished by the importer should be enforced for recovery of duty, interest, penalty and Redemption Fine, if any.

13. I find that the importer had imported goods of declared Assessable Value of Rs. 1,27,49,636/-(Rupees One Crore Twenty Seven Lakhs Forty Nine Thousand Six Hundred Thirty Six only) under Advance Authorisation No. 0310732094 dated 22.04.2013 in terms of Customs Notification No. 96/2009-Cus dated 11.09.2009 at concessional rate of duty for duty saved amount of Rs 29,13,688/-. (Rupees Twenty Nine Lakh Thirteen Thousand Six Hundred Eighty Eight Only).

14. I find that the importer executed Bond dated 06.06.2013 and had given an undertaking to fulfil the conditions of the Bond, Advance Authorisation and the relevant, Custom Notification at the time of registration of the said license at Nhava Sheva port.

15. I find that as per the provisions of Section 143 of the Customs Act, 1962, the said imported goods were allowed clearance by the proper officer on execution of bond by the importer wherein the importer bounded themselves to discharge liability in certain manner, which they have failed to do so by not submitting export obligation discharge certificate by not fulfilling the export obligation. Thus the importer appeared to have not complied with the conditions of Customs Notification No. 96/2009-Cus dated 11.09.2009 and conditions of the Bond. thus goods are liable for confiscation under section 111(o) of the Customs Act, 1962 and thereby importer have rendered themselves liable to penalty under section 112(a) of the Customs, Act, 1962 read with Section 143 of the Customs Act, 1962.

16. I find that the importer has submitted photocopy of Redemption Letter dated 12.03.2019 issued vide File No. 03/88/165/00331/AM16/dated 22.04.2013 in respect of Advance Authorization No. 0310732094 dated 22.04.2013 issued by S.M.BHOINKAR, FTDO, DGFT, Mumbai. In the said Redemption Letter dated 12.03.2019, it is stated that Export Obligation met in full value as well as in quantity term, in proportion to import made. Consequently, the case has been redeemed in terms of Para 4.26 of Handbook of Procedures 2004-09.

17. I find that in comply with the personal hearing conducted on 09.10.2025 as they stated that they will present the original copy on 13.10.2025 for verification purpose, the representative of the said Importer presented the Original copy of the said Redemption letter dated 12.03.2019 on 13.10.2025 before the Adjudicating Authority for verification purpose.

18. I find that the said Redemption letter dated 12.03.2019 issued to the M/s. Salvi Chemical Industries Ltd (IEC No. 0388171049) against the Advance Authorization No. 0310732094 dated 22.04.2013 has been verified with DGFT, Mumbai personally on 10.10.2025 by the staff of EPSMMC Cell, JNCH.

19. I find that when enquired with the official website of DGFT in the respect of View Authorisation/ Transmission details against the said Advance Authorization No. 0310732094 dated 22.04.2013, it is showing the Authorization status as "Closed". Therefore, importer has fulfilled condition of Customs Notification No. 96/2009-Cus dated 11.09.2009. As such Customs duty benefit under Customs Notification No. 96/2009-Cus dated 11.09.2009 is applicable in case of goods imported by M/s. Salvi Chemical Industries Ltd (IEC No. 0388171049) under Advance Authorization No. 0310732094 dated 22.04.2013. Thus, there is no customs duty demand. In absence of Customs duty demand, charges levelled against Authorisation Holder in Show Cause Notice No. 653/2018-19/DMC/JNCH dated 21.06.2018 the demand notice is not sustainable as per the above findings and do not sustain hence required to be dropped.

20. I find that Customs duty benefit under Customs Notification No.96/2009-Cus dated 11.09.2009 is applicable in case of goods imported by M/s. Salvi Chemical Industries Ltd

(IEC No. 0388171049) under Advance Authorization No. 0310732094 dated 22.04.2013. Further, on receipt of closure/redemption letter from DGFT, imported goods against Advance Authorization No. 0310732094 dated 22.04.2013 are not liable for confiscation under 111(o) of Customs Act, 1962. In absence of confiscation, question of imposing redemption fine under section 125 of Customs Act, 1962 doesn't arise.

21. Further when the recovery of duty saved amount is not sustainable, the question of recovery of applicable interest and imposition of penalty under Section-112(a) of the Customs Act, 1962 as proposed in the Show Cause Notice, does not arise.

22. In view of the above, I pass the following order.

ORDER

(i). I hereby drop all the proceedings initiated against M/s. Salvi Chemical Industries Ltd (IEC No. 0388171049) vide the Show Cause Notice No..653/2018-19/DMC/JNCH dated 21.06.2018.

(ii). This order is issued without prejudice to any other action which may be taken in respect of the goods in question and/or against the persons concerned or any other persons, if found involved under the provisions of the Customs Act, 1962 and/or other law for the time being in force in the Republic of India.
