Standing Order No. 12/2025Subject: - Provisional Shipping bill assessment in ICES-reg.

Attention is invited to the ADVISORY No. 19/2025 dated 07.04.2025 issued by Deputy Director, ICES, Directorate General of Systems & Data Management, New Delhi on the above mentioned subject (copy enclosed).

2. A functionality for allowing the officer to mark the Shipping bill as provisional at the time of let export order (LEO) has been developed by DG Systems & Data Management. When the SB is provisional, the export related incentives will not be processed till the Shipping bill is finally assessed, thereby allowing the goods to be exported on provisional basis. The processing of provisional Shipping bill in ICES System will be as follows:

- At time of LEO, the superintendent will indicate that the SB as provisional.
- SB will be moved to stuff/EGM based on nature of cargo.
- On successful filing of EGM, SB will be moved to new queue i.e., SB_PROV
- A new option is added in Exam Sup role to transfer the SB to subsequent queues eg. DBK Supdt/ HIST etc.
- The finalization of the provisional SB can be done through Exam_Sup role in ICES.

3. Any difficulty in implementation of the above said functionality may be brought to the notice of the department by email to saksham.seva@icegate.gov.in.

4. The Deputy/Assistant Commissioner of Customs, Export Docks Clusters, NS-II shall periodically monitor Shipping bills cleared on provisional basis.

5. The Deputy/Assistant Commissioner of Customs, Export Docks Clusters, NS-II shall share the list of Shipping bills cleared on provisional basis to the Additional Commissioner (Export Docks), NS-II in first week of every month in the following format:

S.No.	Shipping Bill No.	Shipping Bill Date	Reasons for Provisional clearance	Pendency Period	Reasons for Pendency	Remarks
-------	-------------------	--------------------	-----------------------------------	-----------------	----------------------	---------

6. Any difficulty faced by the officers in implementation of the above standing order may be brought to the notice of the Additional Commissioner of Customs, Export Docks, NS-II.

Advisory No: 19/2025

Category: Exports

Issued by: DGoS, ICES

Subject: - Provisional Shipping bill assessment in ICES -reg.

References were received from field formation regarding non availability of option of provisional assessment for shipping bills.

A functionality for allowing the officer to mark the shipping as provisional at the time of let export order (LEO) has been developed. When the SB is marked as provisional, all the incentives will not be processed till the SB is marked as finally assessed, and the export of the goods can be allowed. The features of provisional shipping bill are:

- (a) At time of LEO, the superintendent will indicate that the SB is provisional.
- (b) SB will be moved to stuff/EGM based on nature of cargo.
- (c) On successful filing of EGM, SB will be moved to new queue i.e., SB_PROV
- (d) A new option is added in Exam Sup role to transfer the SB to subsequent queues eg. DBK Supdt/ HIST etc
- (e) The finalisation of the provisional SB can be done through Exam_Sup role in ICES
